

Access Statement

Please note: This statement only covers physical access information for Jamyang Buddhist Centre Leeds at its Clyde Works building. For more details, or for information regarding an accessibility issue not detailed here, please email smile@jamyangleeds.co.uk or call 0113 345 2626.

Building Entrance: Access to Clyde Works is gained via a glass door onto the pavement, on the corner of Ingram Road and Crosby Street. There is an 80 mm step from the pavement to the reception floor. The doorbell is 930 mm from the floor and the door opens from a push button inside the building. This push button needs to be pressed to exit the building. It is 1200 mm from the floor. The door clearance is 800 mm.

Inside facilities: The reception is a large area level with the street and all other facilities are accessed down an aluminium ramp kept in reception and covering 3 steps which height is 500 mm in total. The ramp is 720 mm wide, 1830 mm long and will take a maximum weight of 300kg.

The ramp leads directly into the café and communal space. The gompa is immediately off the café area, through a set of double doors with a 1440 mm clearance. The shop is also off the café area, through a door with a 700 mm clearance. There is a suite of offices down a corridor which is three meters wide. Door clearance to each office is 700 mm.

WCs: All toilets are located off the café area. There are separate male and female toilets. There is a single unisex disabled toilet. It is accessed through a single door with a clearance of 865 mm. The door handle and lock are 1000 mm from the floor. The light switch is to the right inside the door, at a distance of 1310 mm from the floor. The width of the bathroom is 2600 mm, and the depth is 2420 mm. The toilet seat is 570 mm from the floor. The tap is 940mm from the floor. The paper towel dispenser is 940 mm from the floor.