

Publicity Designer

About this opportunity

We are looking to recruit enthusiastic and reliable people to help us make a difference. This role is offered to Buddhists and non-Buddhists alike. In this role, you will:

- Take responsibility for the design of printed and online publicity material for courses and events happening at the centre
- Look into additional ways in which our events can be publicised, both online and print
- Help redesign centre leaflets and other marketing documents
- Liaise with the publicity coordinator to develop a marketing strategy

About us

Jamyang Buddhist Centre Leeds is an organisation devoted to the study and promotion of wellbeing, meditation and public benefit, in accordance with Buddhist principles, and the preservation of the Buddhist Mahayana tradition throughout the North of England and elsewhere. We honour the work of his Holiness the Dalai Lama and are affiliated to the Foundation for the Preservation of the Mahayana tradition. We moved to Holbeck in April 2019 and we are now looking for volunteers to help us grow the Centre.

Practical considerations

You will volunteer with the IT & Media team. The amount of time given can be arranged depending on your availability and can vary from a few hours to one or two days a week. Briefing and support will be given by the Centre Director. You will be able to volunteer from home or at our centre in Holbeck. Travel expenses to be agreed.
